THE LONDON CHORAL SERVICE

Music for a funeral

Professional singers for the service, with the music planned with you by our Artistic Director, Luca Wetherall. These are the pieces families ask for most; you can choose anything else that meant something to the person.

Hymns families choose most

- Abide with Me
- The Lord's My Shepherd (Crimond)
- How Great Thou Art
- Amazing Grace
- Jerusalem
- Guide Me, O Thou Great Redeemer
- Make Me a Channel of Your Peace
- Dear Lord and Father of Mankind
- All Things Bright and Beautiful
- Be Thou My Vision

Solo and choral pieces we sing

- Pie Jesu Fauré
- In Paradisum from Fauré's Requiem
- Ave Maria Schubert
- Panis Angelicus Franck
- He Shall Feed His Flock from Handel's Messiah
- God Be in My Head Rutter
- Locus Iste Bruckner
- Ubi Caritas Ola Gjeilo
- Anima Christi Marco Frisina

If a song mattered to the person who died, whether a hymn, a pop song or a classical piece, send it to us and we will arrange it for the singers you book.

What a choir of four adds

Four singers (soprano, alto, tenor and bass) sing every hymn in full harmony and lead the congregation, so the room sings with confidence even when few people know the words. They also sing up to three pieces while everyone listens. Four voices fill a church seating 50 to 200.

In a small chapel or crematorium, one soloist can lead the hymns and sing up to three pieces.

Prices

Soloist	from £250
Small Choir of four	from £1,150
Organist or pianist	£250

Prices for Greater London, including rehearsal and sheet music. Further out, we add travel to your written quote before you book. The quote is the whole cost.

How to book

1. Tell your funeral director you would like live singing, or contact us yourself.
2. Luca rings you, usually the same working day, to plan the music with you.
3. You and your funeral director receive a written running order before the service.
