THE LONDON CHORAL SERVICE

Music for your wedding

Professional singers for your ceremony, with the music planned with you by our Artistic Director, Luca Wetherall. Below are the moments a choir usually sings and the pieces couples ask for most. If a song means something to you, send it to us and we will arrange it for your singers.

When the singers sing

Arrival	while guests take their seats
Processional	as you walk in
Hymns	led in four-part harmony
The signing	a piece while the register is signed
Recessional	as you leave together
Reception	drinks and the wedding breakfast, if you want music to carry on

Pieces couples choose

Ave Maria Schubert

Ubi Caritas Ola Gjeilo

The Lord Bless You and Keep You Rutter

Locus Iste Bruckner

Panis Angelicus Franck

Laudate Dominum Mozart

Anima Christi Marco Frisina

A Thousand Years arranged for voices

Hymns couples know

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling; Jerusalem; Guide Me, O Thou Great Redeemer; Be Thou My Vision; Lord of All Hopefulness; Dear Lord and Father of Mankind.

At a civil ceremony on approved premises in England and Wales, the registrar keeps religious music out, so hymns and sacred pieces move to the drinks reception. For the ceremony itself we sing secular pieces and songs arranged for voices, such as Make You Feel My Love or Songbird.

Prices

Soloist	from £250
Small Choir of four	from £1,150
Quintet	from £1,400
Sextet	from £1,600
Full Choir of eight	from £2,000
Organist or pianist	£250

Each price covers up to two hours, with a rehearsal before the ceremony, the sheet music and the planning call. Prices are for Greater London; further out, we add travel to your written quote before you book. The quote is the whole cost, and no VAT is added.

Four voices fill most parish churches and ceremony rooms. Six or eight suit a large church or a long guest list.

How to book

1. Send us your date, your venue and any music you already have in mind.
2. Within one working day, Luca sends you suggestions, recordings and a written quote.
3. You sign a booking confirmation and pay in full or in two halves. The first half holds your date; the second is due 48 hours before the wedding.
4. A week before, you, your venue and your planner receive the running order. On the day, the musicians arrive an hour early.
